Notes To Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

1. Organization and Basis of Presentation

Basis of Presentation

CIBL, Inc. (the "Company" or "CIBL") is engaged in wireless broadband telecommunications, broadcasting and, until the sale of Giant LLC in May 2010 (see Note 2), cable television business. The Company consolidates its 51% ownership of Wescel Cellular of New Mexico, L.P., whose sole assets include 25% and 33% interests in two New Mexico RSAs, and included in equity in earnings of affiliated companies. The 49% ownership interest in Wescel Cellular of New Mexico, L.P., not owned by CIBL, Inc., is shown as noncontrolling interest in the accompanying financial statements. Investments in affiliates in which the Company does not have a majority voting control, but has the ability to significantly influence management decisions, are accounted for in accordance with the equity method, consisting of: Coronet Communications Company ("Coronet") (20% owned for all periods presented), Capital Communications Company, Inc. ("Capital") (49% owned for all periods presented) and its 100% ownership in Wescel Cellular Inc II, whose sole asset is a 8.3% interest in a New Mexico RSA.

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for interim financial information. Accordingly, they are not audited and do not include all of the information and footnotes required for complete financial statements. These consolidated financial statements and footnotes should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's annual report for the year ended December 31, 2010. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Operating results for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2011 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2011. The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

2. Sale of Giant LLC

The Company closed the sale of Giant on May 21, 2010, to Giant Inc. a Competitive Local Exchange Carrier located in Holton, Kansas. CIBL received $2.1 million in cash for Giant, which represents approximately $80 per share pre-tax for each share of CIBL's common stock outstanding at that time. The historical operations of Giant for 2010 have been reclassified in the Statement of Operations as discontinued operations.

The ultimate parent entity of Giant Inc. is LICT, the company from which CIBL was originally spun off in November 2007.

Details of the Statement of Operations for the discontinued operations of Giant for the nine month period ended September 30, 2010 is as follows:
